76	K	F	Courses	Winds	Remarks
1					When we judged the Sloop safe, we cast her off & bore down for the 2					Strangers who were in plain sight from the Decks, when we were
3					near enough to see what they were, discovering the Brig & Schoo.
4					in chace of us to be men of war the Capt. thought it
5					most prudent to tack & keep to windward of them, which we 6					did, when Lt. Staunton came aft & told the Capt. he had 7					better go home with the People, that he would do no more
8					duty on board, that he wou'd pay back his advance
9					money & give up all his right & title to all prizes
10					he should return during the Cruise if he might be ex
11					cused from duty. He then made use of the 12					most abusive Language, calling the Capt. in a damn'd
1					Coward & went forward saying to the People you are all
2					damn'd cowards or you would have gone with me aft.
3					Shortly after Mr. Wright went forward to station
4					the Look out, Lt. Staunton struck him, got on him
5					& keeped him down by the heels and
6					bruised him very much, which obliged the Capt. & officers
7					to arm themselves & go forward & stop the Riot, when
8					the above named People again began to abuse the Capt.
9					calling him a d--d coward, telling him he had both
10					found that he was not fit to command such a people, that
11					he should go home, Staunton challenged him to fight
12					where they stood with sticks, & if he struck him he would
1					strike him again, damning him almost every word he and
2					after much difficulty got them again quiet
3					N.B. Just as we bore away for the Strangers Staunton said
4					to Mr Davis 1st Lieut. Davis Gentleman seconding him, it is well
5					for Mr Allan bore away as he did for if he had not
6					You would had charge before this time, Mr Davis
7					answered not while I have life, he said then sword
8					else would

1	3		E.S.E.		Gentle gales & Hazy weather in
2	3				at 6 P.M. St James Carrol, was ordered by 3	3				the Captain to do duty on the Quarter deck, to 4	3				which he refused saying he did not enter on board but was
5	3				press'd, that he was a Freeman & he would find him
6	4	4			Stick, but no other Charge for him and made use
7	4				of much insolence & the Captain thinking
8	1	2			him intoxicated ordered him to the Lock
9	4	2			time in Pleasant weather that the Night in 10	4				which the St James was ordered aft to 11	4				do his duty, & after ordering him several
12	4				times he came saying do You think me
1	4				a Damn Scot? at which the Captain told
2	4				him to go to his duty without any noise! persisting
3	4				his insolence & persisting in it intimating as
4	4				much as he would be backed by the People,
5	4				who had by this time collected aft, the Cap
6	2	4			ordered him to push him aft, John St James
7	2				took hold of the Capt.n struck him twice &
8	2				shoved him up against the Starb.d side, when
9	2				the Officers were obliged to force him below
10	3		North		& confine him. After which the most of 11	3	4			the People went below & refused to come on 12	3	4			Deck or to do any more duty. The Capt.n &
	81	6	Miles dist.		officers went forward armed & ordered them on Deck, who came up & Philemon Cotton said he would go to his duty again so it was of no use for People to say they would do a thing & then fall back, after which the People returned to their Duty.
